Articulate Solutions Wins Prestigious Design Awards for QuestDocs Logo and Website

December 9, 2014 (Gilroy, CA): Articulate Solutions, Inc., a creative services firm based in Gilroy, was recently recognized with three prestigious international design awards for logo and website design.

The firm won both Marcom Gold and Davey Silver awards for logo design for QuestDocs, a Silicon Valley startup that uses sophisticated encryption technology to securely store and share official documents.

Articulate Solutions also designed the QuestDocs website (www.questdocs.com) and was awarded Marcom Gold for Website Design in the Business to Consumer category. The website features bold, full-screen photos, engaging text and graphics to explain the technology, and a responsive design for optimal viewing on mobile, tablet, laptop and desktop devices.

Debora Mason, Founder and CEO of First Data Analytics (which created QuestDocs), said, "We are thrilled to have our new logo and website recognized with these prestigious design awards. The Articulate Solutions team did an amazing job helping us create a beautiful website that explains our fairly complicated technology using clear language and powerful images."

Articulate Solutions CEO and Executive Creative Director Katherine Filice said, "I'm incredibly proud of everyone on our team, from graphic designers to copywriters and programmers, who all collaborated with each other and the client to deliver an award-winning logo and website."
